

An IT service, consulting, and outsourcing company.

- You desire it, we build it.

ABOUT US

Dzaro Solutions is one of the fastest-growing IT service providers in India. We have always believed in placing our passion in creating clever solutions. When we work for clients who make smart investments in some of the most intelligent technologies, it gives us a chance to help organizations realize their true potential. We, as your IT consulting partner, provide various solutions including Strategic Consultancies, Managed Service Providers (MSPs), and Value-Added Resellers (VARs).

Dzaro Solutions is a rapidly growing IT Outsourcing and Consulting company that provides IT staff augmentation. We have been offering partial and full outsourcing services for the last 4 years.

We offer IT experts as a service. These professionals can be managed by the client or our Project Manager who works with a dedicated team. From sourcing, connecting, profiling, and placement of candidates, our IT Staffing service covers all the staffing aspects. With our proficient help, you will find the right employees to work on your projects.

Our sourcing system for IT professionals is smarter, as it includes personal engagement along with state-of-the-art technology, allowing us to connect with the pinnacle of talent more efficiently.

Our experienced professionals also take complete care of your administration matters such as BGV and other documentation. This service allows us to deliver a one-stop IT Recruitment service, making us one of the best IT Recruitment solutions providers in the world.

Our remarkably skilled developers from various specific backgrounds make us better than other body shop firms. We currently have more than a 50 IT professionals deployed to different clients on a staff augmentation model.

Dzaro Solutions offer a client focused and industry specific IT Recruitment process.

This process ensures that we deliver only the people with specialized technical experience that is required by the client. We are prepared with effective processes to provide you with immediate support for all your IT needs.
